

PRINTABLE ROUTINE CARDS FOR THE HOMESCHOOL WEEK

Homeschool weekly schedule cards

Cut these apart and arrange them on a pocket chart, magnet board, or table — a visual weekly rhythm your kids can see and move themselves, no clock-watching required.

Cut-apart routine cards

Print, cut along the dashed lines, and write the time or order on the blank line if you use one.

 Morning Basket _____	 Math _____	 Reading _____
 Writing _____	 Science _____	 History / Social Studies _____
 Art / Creative Time _____	 Outside / Movement Break _____	 Lunch _____
 Independent Work _____	 Co-op / Group Class _____	 Free Card — Write Your Own _____

This week's grid

Or skip cutting and just fill in the grid — write a card name in each box.

	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri
Morning
Midday
Afternoon

Tips for using these cards

- Laminate the set once and reorder with dry-erase or magnets all year — cut it once, use it all year.
- Let your kids move the cards themselves. A child who arranges their own day owns the schedule instead of just receiving it.
- Keep a blank "free card" in the deck for the days that need something the set doesn't name — a sick day, a field trip, a slow morning.
- Re-cut a fresh set each semester as your rhythm changes — five minutes with scissors beats redesigning from scratch.

Want AI to help draft the plan behind the schedule? Our Full-Year Homeschool Planner with AI gives you a year-at-a-glance grid, monthly planning pages, and the prompts to fill them. In our TpT store.

© Adam & Katelyn Spinozzi · AI-Ready School. Free resource: print and share with your family or co-op; please don't resell or repost online. Built and audited by two certified teachers.